We again call attention to certain homes in this town, whose neat and attractive appearance should result in other homes looking likewise.

Believe in today. The past is of value only as it can make the life fuller and freer. There is no assurance of tomorrow. We must make good today.

The voters of this district showed their expression of good will and confidence in Mr. Hubert F. Fisher in the primary Saturday by giving to him all but three of the votes cast at this box, and his opponent was also a likable fellow. Mr. Fisher has already proved worthy of public trust and as Congressman he will continue to ably and honestly represent the people in the Tenth district. In our opinion the people have chosen wisely and well.

At a called meeting of the local Mayor and Aldermen held in the Steversoh building Thursday night, the resignation of Dr. C. N. Crook was tendered the board and accepted and W. L. Jewell elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Jewell was also chosen to fill the place of Secretary.

The marriage at Rossville Tuesday of Miss Elsie Bryant to a Mr. Pleasant was the surprise of the week among local folks, especially was it so to the brides father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bryant.

"Sometimes one is awful laid with their corn plantn, but what they don't get plantd they want have to kultvait. Thays alwaze sum compensasum if yew look fer it."

J. L. Crosssett Jr. spent a couple of days of the week past in Memphis.

A concrete floor is being laid in the J. J. Burnett Jr. building, which when complete will be used as a garage conducted by Boyd Burnett. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ashford deeply sympathize with them in the loss by death last week of their baby girl. The remains were interred Friday in Ebenezer cemetery.

Rev. C. A. Davis of Memphis was a past week caller among local friends. Douglas, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mason, broke both arms Saturday from a fall out of a tree. The injury has caused the little fellow much suffering.

George Ballou of Arkansas spent Sunday with relatives near here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pearce visited friends near town Sunday.

Perhaps your home wouldn't satisfy some folks, but it contains jewels which cannot be bought in the markets of the world. When you enter its secret chambers and shut out the world, you are a lord. Its motto is Service, its reward is Love. There is no other spot in all the world which fills its place and heaven can only be a large home with a Father who is all-wise and patient, and tender.

A Call To Patriots.

Now our hearts beat fast for our country. The tocsin of war is sounding, the colors are flying, there is a cry "to arms". It is an hour of need, Strong, courageous men must answer the call.

We will not tolerate a war of lust or greed. We will not support an army of ruthless invaders. We will fight, not for booty, not for revenge, not for glory, but only for the enthronement of justice and peace. Such a fight is not always—nay, it is seldom—waged with shot and shell.

The essence of our Americanism is that we will ever strive to shield our country against the evils, without and within, which would compass her downfall. And America's most dangerous enemies are the greed, graft, exploitation and ignorance within her own borders. Where these flourish, men and institutions decay.

Every great man is a revolutionist. Every great movement is heralded by a declaration of independence.

Today Tennessee is on the threshold of peaceful revolution. What we do now will shape our destiny. We are to determine whether we will call a constitutional convention which holding fast that which is good, shall remould our ancient institutions in keeping with the intelligence and experience of the twentieth century.

Let us rededicate ourselves to the American ideal. Let us correct our aberrations from the orbit of efficient government. Let us highly resolve that we will do the utmost within our power to make this State not merely a follower after the progress of the world, but a pioneer in all those measures which tend toward social justice.

Then we shall be American patriots and worthy of our heritage.

the same day one reached us from the field of Ed Futrell who lives out the Jackson road on the land of Capt. E. A. Maddox. The same afternoon one arrived in the rural mail from route 2 which was sent by Alva Brown from the farm of his father, W. H. Brown.

The first bloom of last year's crop came in from I. J. Person's field on June 19, four days earlier than the first this year.

Following an old custom in The Falcon office, we are this week giving credit for a year's subscription to J. R. Pierce who is credited with bringing in the first bloom of the season.

The first bale of the season ginned or marketed in Somerville entitles the grower to a year's subscription, also, under a practice of several years.

Tipton and Fisher Win In Last Saturday's Primary.

In the judicial primary election held last Saturday thruout the sixteenth judicial circuit, Hon. Nat Tipton was re-nominated for attorney general by a majority of less than three hundred over Hon. C. A. Stainback of this city. Mr. Stainback has reason to feel very proud over his fine vote in Fayette county, in round numbers he received 900 to his opponent's 200. Fisher was nominated for congress on the same date over Looney, both of Memphis. Official votes will be given after committee meetings.

240 Pound Pigs.

With corn above 50 cts. hogs eat their heads off very quickly. The hog that takes two or three months to get on full feed never brings you a profit.

When you are ready to put your shoats on feed, begin with the B. A. Thomas Hog Medicine. Use regularly and watch your shoats round out into fat hogs in nine months—hogs going well over 200 pounds and as high as 240 pounds. Figure the average feeding and you will see why the B. A. Thomas medicine is a good investment. Try feeding out your hogs on this plan and if you are not more than pleased, we will refund the cost of the medicine. adv. 7-1.

EDUCATIONAL.

The grades for the teachers examination held in this city in May are now in the hands of the county superintendent and can be seen by those entitled to know them by application to the superintendent at his office.

Bilious Attacks.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. For sale by all dealers. adv. 7-1
